

The Spanish Society for Neuroscience – SENC- opens a NEW CALL for travel awards to attend its 17th Meeting, to be held in Alicante in September 27-30 2017.

SENC is sponsoring travel grants for its predoctoral members (€ 350 for those working in Spain and €450 for those working outside our country) and postdoctoral members (€ 450 for those working in Spain and € 550, for those working outside our country).

TERMS OF THE CALL:

1. Only SENC members can apply to this call. Membership applications must be submitted by May 15, 2017 (including membership fee payment) at the latest via our online membership application form to be eligible for SENC travel grants.
2. The applicants must present a first author contribution at the meeting.
3. The awardees must participate in the Young Neuroscientist Symposium (Wednesday, September 27th, 2017).
4. The awardees must show in their poster or in their oral communications the SENC travel award badge.
5. Applicants should send to SENC secretariat (secretaria.technica@senc.es) the following documentation:
 - Short CV (1 page maximum).
 - A copy of the contribution sent to the meeting
 - A document certifying his/her predoctoral student condition (a certificate from the thesis director is sufficient) or stating the date of his/her thesis defense.
6. The period for submitting the travel award application starts on April 24th and the deadline is on May 31, 2017.